The Inter-American Accreditation Cooperation (IAAC)

AND

The Inter-American Metrology System (SIM)

AND

The Pan-American Standards Commission (COPANT)

THE PARTIES TO THIS AGREEMENT, the three Regional Quality Infrastructure Organizations of the Americas: the Inter-American Accreditation Cooperation (hereafter IAAC), a civil non-profit association headquartered in Mexico City, Mexico, represented by its Chair, Ileana Martinez; the Inter-American Metrology System (hereafter SIM), a regional metrology organization represented by its President, José Dajes; and the Pan-American Standards Commission (hereafter COPANT), a civil non-profit association headquartered in La Paz, Bolivia, represented by its Executive Secretary, Kory Eguino,

CONSIDERING:

The Plan of Action of Panama 2012-2016, adopted at the Third Meeting of Ministers and High Authorities of Science and Technology of the Americas (Panama, 2011), which identified National Quality Infrastructure (NQI) as a priority issue for competitiveness, innovation, trade and consumer safety in the Hemisphere and created a Ministerial Working Group to strengthen national quality systems, promote the importance of NQI in the region and design and coordinate regional and hemispheric projects on the aforementioned topics;

The long and successful history of three independent Regional Quality Infrastructure Organizations of the Americas, COPANT, IAAC, and SIM, each of which has active and broad participation from the countries in the Americas in their respective areas of expertise;

The complementary and mutually supporting nature of standards development, accreditation, and scientific, industrial and legal metrology as the key elements of quality infrastructure;

The recognition by all three organizations of the importance of collaborative action to enhance the results and impact of their activities in the broader context of quality infrastructure across the Region;

The shared goal to create a formal structure for joint projects, information sharing, and cross-functional training and development;

AGREE TO ENTER INTO THIS MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING:

ARTICLE I PURPOSE

The purpose of this MOU is to create the Quality Infrastructure Council of the Americas, a partnership of peer regional organizations that provides a single point of contact for action and collaboration to support the expansion of National Quality Infrastructure in the Hemisphere. Cooperative activities will be explored and determined by the Parties within the framework of this MOU.

ARTICLE II
FORMS OF CO-OPERATION

Activities carried out under this Agreement may include but are not limited to:

- 2.1 Co-organizing awareness and capacity building events for stakeholders, including public officials;
- 2.2 Offering joint seminars and training courses on priority areas;
- 2.3 Increasing the visibility of each other's services and activities among their respective networks;
- 2.4 Supporting each other's training activities;
- 2.5 Developing and implementing joint programs;
- 2.6 Exchanging documents, specific information and access to databases and general information;
- 2.7 Exchanging professional personnel to strengthen projects and programs;
- 2.8 Carrying out joint meetings to address matters of common interest.
- 2.9 Promoting cooperation and collaboration among each other's members at a national level.

ARTICLE III
FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

This Agreement in and of itself does not create obligations of a financial nature for any of the Parties beyond supporting their own costs to participate in the joint activities as described above.

ARTICLE IV
COORDINATION AND NOTICE
